Announcements

11:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. Children's Church for ages 5-9 in Dower Chapel. Please be courteous and pick up your child immediatley at the close of the church service.

LUNCH is served in the back of Rainier Auditorium immediately following the the worship service. Your generous donation will help defray food costs and any extra will be used to redecorate Rudolph Hall. (The Nelson Hall fire effected everyone on campus. A new dormitory is being built for the girls and we are excited and grateful. A newly decortated cafeteria will be a refreshing experience for all. The Committee of 100 and the Washington Conference has funded the cost of new tables. Chairs at nearly $100 apiece are the next priority. Generous donors have already funded half of the $32,000 so we are thrilled to be on our way to making this a reality!)

2:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. Childcare for ages 1-12 at Loving to Learn Daycare located behind the cafeteria. Please leave a minimum donation of $5.00 per child per hour for this service and be courteous to arrive at 5:00 p.m. to pick up your child. We want to leave positive feelings so we can ensure these services next year.

The Alumni Endowment Fund

Nearly 20 years ago, the Alumni Association established this special endowment for the purpose of providing scholarships for students who wish to receive a Christian education at Auburn Adventist Academy, who have financial need and show dedication to their work and academic program. This year $1,905.53 was awarded in scholarships. These scholarships came from the earnings of the endowment fund.

O, When Shall I See Jesus

O, when shall I see Jesus
And reign with Him above,
And shall hear the trumpet
Sound in the morning?
And from the flowing fountain
Drink everlasting love,
And shall hear the trumpet
Sound in that morning.

Chorus
O, shout, glory!
For I shall mount above the skies,
When I hear the trumpet sound
In that morning.

Gird on the gospel armor of faith
And hope and love,
And you'll hear the trumpet
Sound in that morning.
And when the combat's ended
He'll carry you above,
And you'll hear the trumpet
sound in that morning.

Our ears shall hear with trasnsport
The host of heaven sing,
And shall hear the trumpet
Sound in that morning.
Our tongues shall chant the
Glories of our immortal King,
And shall hear the trumpet
Sound in the morning.

Hallway Displays

Take a few minutes to check out the displays in the hallway of the administration building this weekend. The beautiful wood and glass cases were crafted by Chauncy Betts and given to the academy as a reunion gift several years ago by the Class of 1941. JoAnn McKey, the Academy's librarian, updated the displays to show memorabilia from each of this year's reunion classes. If you have memorabilia like old school newspapers, snapshots, graduation announcements, programs or even school clothing that you no longer wish to keep, remember that Auburn Adventist Academy's alumni archives would love your contributions! Don't throw them away!

Thank You, Class Agents!

Auburn's Alumni Association has over 6,000 members! That's a lot of graduates, former students and staff to keep track of. Thanks to the tireless efforts of Auburn's current class agents, we're doing a better job than ever before. The Academy helps class agents correspond with their class at least once each year. Class agents also help to raise funds for the Academy's most important needs by inviting their classmates to financially support Christian education. Not every class has a class agent, yet! If you would like to join the ranks of this distinguished group, contact the Alumni Office.

"Great music . . . such talented young people."

Distinguished Alumnus 2004 Robert Paulsen

Humor, energy, compassion—these are words that accurately describe the recipient of the 2004Distinguished Alumnus of the Year Award. Robert Paulsen, called to serve, hit the road running--making youth ministry and evangelism his passion from a very involved layman's point of view.

Born in Wenatchee in 1936 and later moving with his family to Tacoma, he attended Auburn Adventist Academy from 1950 through 1952. A move to Wisconsin brought him the love of his life, Carol Baartz, whom he married in 1956. Six years later Bob and Carol returned to the Puyallup area and eventually owned their own business, Action Awning.

Though thoroughly dedicated to the community with his business, Paulsen has spent most of his life caring for and helping young people. In his home church, Puyallup Seventh-day Adventist Church, he dedicated 18 years as youth leader and has been actively involved in leadership as an elder for many years as well. His dedication to youth has led him to chair the student aid committee, raising funds to give young people the opportunity to get a Seventh-day Adventist Christian education in elementary school, at Auburn Adventist Academy, and in college.

Paulsen has not only been vice president and president of the AAA alumni association, he was the first chairman of the academy's Committee of 100—a giving society dedicated to the systematic support and continued growth of Christian education supporting special projects each year—and he has helped to raise thousands of dollars for academy needs. He and his wife, Carol, have continued to be involved with the Committee of 100 and this year Paulsen said yes to chairing this committee again. He and his family have been actively recruiting others to join this philanthropic group to better the educational experience for young people here at AAA.

God has given Paulsen a vision and he has acted on that vision, giving him the abilities to work with others on committees and boards including his local church, the Washington Conference and the North Pacific Union Conference. Paulsen is currently on the academy's Land Use Committee and the Building Committee. He also serves on Maranatha and A.S.I. committees as well.

Last year Nelson Crane Christian School operated by the Puyallup Seventh-day Adventist Church needed a principal mid-year. Paulsen graciously accepted this new challenge and completed a successful school year. As you can imagine, the children loved him.

In addition to the many committees that Paulsen is currently on, he makes several mission trips a year and conducts Weeks of Prayer at academies in other countries. Bob has a very special place in his heart for young people and connecting them to Jesus Christ. As a result, many students from all walks of life have given their lives to the Lord and have been baptized.

One of his most memorable mission experiences might be the series of evangelistic meetings he held in Ongole, India, where 55,000 people attended the last night. At the close of the meetings 15,013 precious souls were baptized—and as far as we know, that is still the largest baptism from a series of meetings that our church has ever held. And Bob would be the first to give all the praise and glory to God.

The past ten years have been the busiest ever for Paulsen. He would probably chuckle if he were asked how he likes retirement! He is busier now than before retiring. As daughter Dawn Paulsen Heilbrun '80 shares, "He has dedicated his life to the service of the Lord and simply gives as the Lord directs and goes where the Lord leads him."

It is with honor that the 2004 Distinguished Alumnus Award is presented to you, Bob Paulsen. You, like those who have been honored before you, leave a legacy—that a life dedicated to Jesus is a life of service to others. Thank-you for being that kind of example.
